

Skyline racers smash records

Records galore were broken at the Withens Skyline run with a record entry, and record times in every section of the race.

In the shock of the day Graham Patten eclipsed local runner and record holder, Iain Holmes on the final run-in to set a new record time of 39mins 39secs. Holmes who had led for all the race until the run to the tape finished in 39:52, his old record stood at 42mins 52 secs.

Former British fell running champion Sarah Rowell cut over two minutes off her own womens record time setting a new time of 46.09 (48.43).
