

AT THE Stoop Fell Race near Haworth, East Lancashire athletes at each end of the age-
 scale were successful.

Naomi Biddle of Hyndburn was the winning under 14
 girl in the one mile long junior race, and Ken Taylor of Ros-sendale Harriers was the over 50 winner
 in the five mile senior race.

Mark Horrocks of Clayton Harriers was second in the senior
 race, beaten only by Ian Holmes of Bingley. Holmes, who won both the English and British Fell Championships this year, won the race for the seventh successive time in only its eighth year.

Consolation for Horrocks was that he led Clayton to a comfortable team
 win with Sean Livesey and
 Andrew Black fifth
 and sixth respectively. Their main
 rivals were Clay-
 ton's second team
 who clinched the
 runners-up spot
 thanks to Ian Greenwood (10th),
 Mark Brown (11th)
 and Mick Proctor (15th).

Todmorden's
 Andy Wrench finished third with
 clubmate Jon
 Wright eighth.
 Ninth was ex-
 Blackburn Harrier

Graham Schofield. He was second veteran behind Bradford's Steve Oldfield, who was also the leading veteran at Darwen last week.

Honours were even in the Rawlinson household, Barry was second over 50 with wife Jean runner-up in the over 40s. Both run for Rossendale. Jan
 Holding of Darwen Dashers was fourth over 40.

Earlier in the
 day, Hyndburn AC
 had five athletes
 in the junior race.
 Naomi Biddle won
 her age group and
 all finished
 amongst the leaders. Grace Biddle (under nine girls), Kyle Biddle (under nine boys) and Lauren Bridge (under 12 girls) each
 finished third,
 while Mark Bridge
 was fourth under 12 boy.
