5TH APRIL 2011BUNNY RUN ONE – THE WINDY ONE
3MILE/300FT

The start of the series saw 284 athletes young and old trying their best to stay on their feet as a fierce wind forced them every way except forward, so given these conditions the times achieved are worth at least 2 minutes on a normal windless Tuesday evening. New Bunny Boy Ben Mounsey took the Egg Stage prizes, and with a little more knowledge of the course now, will be a big contender next week. 21 year old England international Tom Addison played it cool, knowing the lactic acid you can build up by going too fast too soon is fatal and used this knowledge to pace it perfectly and win in 15-53 from fellow international Adam Osborne, with another new Bunny runner Tim Ellis third. Series winner last year Katie Walshaw continued her dominance of the Bunnies winning the Egg Stage and the race outright for the fourth time, and finally getting her name on the cuddly bunny perpetual trophy, which is only given out at Bunny One. See you all next week for more Bunny Mayhem, remember 7-15pm start!!

12TH APRIL 2011

BUNNY RUN TWO – THE SUNNY ONE
3MILE/300FT

What a start to married life, 'Bunnymooner' Tom Adams only four days previous married his sweetheart Joanne in bonny Scotland, and here proceeded to run away from the 286 Bunny Runners to eggsterminate the Egg Stage time bringing it down to 3.17. Besides the best efforts of Wardle Skyline winner Tim Ellis, 28 times Bunny winner Ian Holmes and Adam Osborne, Tom couldn't be thwarted as he romped to victory – remember Tom is the series winner from last year! 26 year old Katie Walshaw was unnerved by the attentions of Shaftsbury & Barnet new Bunny Girl Philippa Aukett and new FV35 record holder Jo Buckley, but she needn't have worried, her form of late is scintillating as she recorded a very fast 17.30 only 10 seconds outside Scary Mary's record – remember Katie is the series winner from last year! Both Tom and Katie are immortalised on the overall Bunny Beer label for next weeks installment of Bunny Mayhem, remember 7-30pm start!!
