COMPETITION

As you know the Auld Lang Syne fell race, on New Years Eve has established itself for an enjoyable race route on Haworth Moor in the heart of Bronte land, free bottle of beer at the finish, great hospitality at the Old Sun Inn and a sensational prize giving. This year, the event becomes unique as it will be the last FELL RACE THIS CENTURY, and to mark this Briscoe's Brewery is producing an exclusive one pint bottle of real ale for all finishers.

So a competition is on to find a name for the beer, and possibly a motif, logo or design for the label.

It can be witty, bizarre or serious it's up to you. Other brewery productions have been Puddled & Barmy, Shanes Shamrock and the 1998 Auld Lang Syne saw 24 bottles of Woodies Willy Warmer handed out to category winners.

A superb prize is on offer to the winner, the design chosen will be printed and put into production along with the creators name, even better he or she will receive 12 bottles of the unnamed beer at present.

Send your entries to Dave & Eileen Woodhead, 166 Hainworth Wood Road, Keighley, BD 21 5DF, West Yorkshire.

Closing date is the last day of July, and the only judge is brewery owner Paul Briscoe, an accomplished fell runner and brewer, his decision is final.
